

Sun Alert Archive and Mappings for Legacy SunSolve Document ID Numbers

Sun Microsystems published security advisories to alert users about vulnerabilities affecting Sun products. These advisories were known as Security Sun Alerts and were published on SunSolve Support portal. Security Sun Alerts were available free of cost to all customers and users of Sun's products. Security vulnerabilities are now covered by the Oracle Security Alert process. Details can be found on the Critical Patch Updates and Security Alerts site.

All security Sun Alerts are now accessible to customers through My Oracle Support \(MOS\) website. The Document ID numbers under Oracle support portal are new and different from the document ID numbers published under SunSolve. SunSolve itself had transitioned to different knowledge management systems resulting in multiple legacy document IDs for the same Sun Alert. We are providing an archival index of all the Security Sun Alerts and mappings for previously used ID numbers as a reference.
